English National Concessionary Travel Scheme pass

Older and disabled people across England can travel free anywhere on London's bus network with the English National Concessionary Travel Scheme pass. These passes look similar to Freedom Passes, but they do not currently work on Oyster readers so the ETM will display 'ITSO card, not accepted'. Holders must show you their pass. We will let you know when this changes and ask you to look out for driver notices at that time.

Each pass includes:

- ◆ A red Tudor rose logo
- ◆ A red ribbon St George's cross
- ◆ A hologram

Please note:

- ◆ On TfL bus services, the English National Concessionary Travel Scheme pass is valid at any time just like the London Freedom Pass
- ◆ Drivers should currently press the ETM button once to record each passenger with this kind of travel pass. We will let you know when this changes
- ◆ Some TfL bus routes that operate beyond Greater London may offer additional availability and free travel for companions. Drivers on those routes should check their route information sheets for further information. Companions do not get free travel within Greater London
- ◆ Older and disabled people's passes from outside London are not valid for free travel on trams, Tube, Docklands Light Railway (DLR), London Overground and National Rail services
- ◆ Older and disabled people's passes issued in Northern Ireland, Scotland and Wales have different logos and images and are not valid for free travel on London's buses
